New Year's Day Finds Mayor Pike Optimistic For Township's Future

Elimination of sewer overflows, Township-wide trash collection, improved leaf pick-up and evening hours for some Township municipal offices are among the predictions offered by Township Mayor Winthrop S. Pike for 1985 and beyond.

The look-to-the future was part of the Mayor's Remarks scheduled to be delivered at the New Year's Day Township Committee Reorganization Meeting. In order to meet its holiday publication deadline, TOWN TOPICS obtained a copy in advance of the meeting for inclusion in this first issue of 1985.

The tone of the remarks is decidedly upbeat. Completing his third year as mayor, and virtually assured of being re-elected by the Republican majority on Committee, Mayor Pike describes the "encouraging progress" in sewer repairs. "Vigorous enforcement" of preliminary findings in the house-to-house inspection to identify illegal private connections could "go far toward solving our (overflow) problems," he suggests.

Noting that Mt. Laurel will continue to occupy much Township time and effort, Mayor Pike says he is "cautiously optimistic that realization is beginning to surface around the state that zoning by court fiat is not an optimum solution to the problem of housing the less fortunate."

The New Year's Day Reorganization Meeting also features swearing-in ceremonies for new members of Committee and appointments to boards and agencies. Gail Firestone, beginning her second three-year term on Committee, was expected to be named Deputy Mayor, a post she held last year. Thomas Poole, her running mate in the November election, was successful in

HERE ONE DAY, GONE THE NEXT. The Princeton University campus is shown covered by the proverbial mantle of snow. This scene, however, was fleeting. Two inches of snow fell Thursday, but 48 hours later people were walking about in shirtsleeves enjoying Saturday's balmy temperatures that reached 73 degrees. That easily broke the former record of 64 for the date. Normal high for this time of year is 32. (Craig C. Stuart photo)

Ron Rogerson Named to Succeed Frank Navarro As Princeton University's Head Football Coach

On a bleak, winter's afternoon, as bleak, as any experienced by Tiger football fans this fall, Princeton University introduced the man it hopes will revive its sagging football fortunes.

Ron Rogerson, head coach at the University of Maine the last four seasons, has been named the University's 19th head coach. He replaces Frank Navarro, who resigned under heavy pressure last month, two days after completing his third consecutive losing season.

The announcement was made at a press conference last Thursday afternoon by athletic director Bob Myslik, who had conducted a five-week search for a new coach. More than 100 candidates were considered; Rogerson was chosen from a semi-final list of about 10.

Myslik left no doubt he feels he has chosen the right man.

"Very early in the search, I met Ron Rogerson, and became convinced early on I had met a very special person," Myslik began. "I proceeded to talk to a lot of people who knew Ron. Every time I made a phone call, every time I talked to somebody, the picture got better and better.

"He's a magnetic winner. He's definitely a player's coach.

"I've never been so pleased at the end of a search. It's the beginning of a new improvement phase for all of us."

The 41-year-old Rogerson matched Myslik's praise with his own enthusiasm.

"I'm thrilled, I'm excited," he began. "When Frank Navarro resigned I knew in my heart this was the right thing for me. I told my wife I was going to the office to write a letter and a resume. I didn't know if anything would happen, but I wanted to send it.

"I'm committed to the education and the total experience of the university for the players. The opportunity to come to Princeton fell right in line with what I wanted to do, and how I wanted to continue my life.

"I can't wait to get underway."

A 1966 graduate of Maine and winner of its top football award in 1964, Rogerson began his college coaching career in 1967 as varsity end coach at Colorado State University, also earning a master's degree in education there.

He moved to Lebanon Valley College the next fall, spending three years there as offensive and defensive line coach. In 1971, it was on to the University of Delaware, where he was an assistant to Tubby Raymond, first as defensive end coach, then as defensive backfield coach, and finally as offensive line coach.

Mayor Sigmund Blasts Route 1 Development In New Year's Speech

In a speech scheduled for delivery at the Princeton Borough Reorganization Meeting at noon on New Year's Day, Borough Mayor Barbara Sigmund fired several more salvos in her battle against the encroaching development on Route 1.

While last year's speech — her inaugural address — covered subjects as diverse as Palmer Square, taxes, housing, sewers, and parks, her talk this year focused largely on "the mega-growth in the Route 1 seven-mile super stretch outside Princeton."

Upholding the Borough government's "first allegiance" to Princeton, she proposed that the New Jersey Department of Transportation abandon plans to widen Route 1 and, instead, build a new Route 1 limited access expressway adjacent to the main line of the railroad in the railroad right-of-way between Routes 295 and 130.

She asserted that the present expansionist plans of the DOT for Route 1 are doomed to failure, inasmuch as they act as an added inducement for further growth on the roadway.

The mayor also called for state legislation to achieve regional control mechanisms over growth that has regional impact, and vowed to seek cooperation from neighboring communities for legislation that would give county planning boards co-equal approval powers with municipal boards over any development of 100,000 square feet or more.

In her talk, Mayor Sigmund also announced plans to reconstitute the Borough Tax Policy Committee and Economic Development Committee. The former will concentrate on the relation-his bid for a three year term on Committee.

Mayor Pike has named Dean Chace, long active in Township Republican affairs, to a five-year term on the Planning Board and reappointed Hans Sander. The mayor has left one seat on the Planning Board vacant pending decision on a plan that would reduce the number of members from 14 to 12 — six from each municipality.

John Werth, a licensed engineer who has been active in the Northeast Residents Association, was named as the Township's representative to the Stony Brook Regional Sewerage Authority. He replaces Chairman John T. McGee who will be moving away from Princeton.

Township Committee will continue to meet on an average of three times a month, generally on Monday evenings with some Thursday night meetings in the middle of January, February and March. The next meeting will be Monday, January 7, at 8 in the Valley Road Administration Building meeting room. Budget work sessions, which the public may attend, will be held on four consecutive Saturday mornings, starting January 12, at 9:30.

Following is all but the opening and concluding paragraphs of Mayor Pike's Mayor's Remarks 1985 scheduled for delivery at the Township Committee Reorganization Meeting on New Year's Day.

"The big news of 1984 was undoubtedly Mt. Laurel. It occupied many long hours of both Township Committee and Planning Board time. You will remember that we were sued by two developers seeking 'builder's remedies' for their properties. We expect these law suits to be argued before the Honorable Eugene Serpentelli later this month.

"The judge has stated that the suits will be dealt with on the basis of the new affordable housing ordinance adopted late last year by Township Committee after many hours of public hearings.

"Deer were a continuing problem in 1984. The Environmental Commission and Deer Committee held a number of informational public meetings on this touchy subject without, however, finding a solution acceptable to all. We have just received the latest statistics from Police Chief Pinelli on deer-auto collisions and note that the number has again gone up — from 170 or so in '83 to 192 in '84. New in '84 — and not good news — is the fact that two of these collisions resulted in injuries to the occupants of the vehicles.

"There has been encouraging progress in sewer repairs. We spent $1,300,00 between the fall of '81 and December '84. Some mains have been replaced; many leaky pipe joints ferreted out by TV inspection and chemically grouted; quite a few illegal connections have been removed; and many leaky manhole covers and frames replaced outright.

"About $380,000 more is already committed for two further rehabilitation projects, one of which, replacement of a portion of the Mountain Brook trunk line, is now under way. You may have noticed the clearing of the right of way traversed by this line just across Route 206 from the Police Station.

Additional Progress. "Two other sewer happenings are worth noting. First, the Sump Pump Ordinance adopted by Committee at the suggestion of Deputy Mayor Gail Firestone has resulted in the disconnection of about 35 sump pumps from the sanitary sewer system. This could easily result in the removal from the system of more than one million gallons per day of excess rain water during wet weather — surely a step in the right direction.

"Second, under contract to the Sewer Operating Committee, a local engineering firm is currently conducting a house-to-house investigation program to identify and eliminate illegal, private connections (such as sump pumps, gutter leaders, footing and cellar drains, etc.) to the sanitary sewer system. The preliminary findings are of great interest.

"Of the first 250 premises inspected, seven were found to have illegal sump pump connections and 43 more had other types of improper connections. These premises were all in our sister municipality, Princeton Borough. We urge the Borough authorities to follow up these findings with vigorous enforcement.

"It will save us all a good deal of money in sewer treatment charges in the end and

Death of 13-Year Old Boychoir School Student Finally Revealed 21 Months after It Happened

Twenty-one months after it happened, the public last week learned of the death of a 13-year-old student at the American Boychoir School in Princeton.

The death March 15, 1983, of Michael P. Phillips of Union County was treated at first as an unexplained death. "We weren't sure what he had died from," recalled Township Police Chief Anthony Pinelli this week. There was no attempt to cover up the incident, Chief Pinelli added. He said he thought that he had released a report of the death of a student at the school at the time but he may not have.

The medical examiner who conducted the autopsy was puzzled to find evidence of severe hemorrhaging in the body, Chief Pinelli said, but it was not until six weeks later, on May 2, when a toxicologist's report determined that the youth had died from chloroform poisoning, that police know for certain that this was not a routine, unexplained death.

"When the chloroform part came out we felt we couldn't put it out then," said Chief Pinelli. "We kept it quiet to see how much we could uncover in our investigation."

Meanwhile, there have been these developments:

• Chief Pinelli bristles at the report published in the Trenton Times, which broke the story last Wednesday, stating that Township police officers "could have worked more diligently on the case in the beginning." The comment was attributed to an unidentified "Princeton source."

"We've worked extremely hard," insisted Chief Pinelli. "It's disturbing to me and to the officers Lt. Samuel Bianco, Det. Jerry Offredo and Ptl. Mark Emann) who have worked day and night on this. We worked diligently from the beginning right up to now. We never closed this case. In no way did we not cooperate fully."

• The mother of the victim, Mrs. Winifred Phillips, has filed a lawsuit this month in state Superior Court, seeking damages from the Boychoir School. The suit alleges that the school, school employees and students were negligent in failing to exercise supervisory care, failed to safeguard the school's science laboratory and its harmful chemicals, and that the defendants "negligently administered or applied harmful and dangerous chemicals to the body of Michael Phillips."

TOPICS Of The Town

• The parents of one of Michael's three roommates have refused to let their son be given a polygraph test and have refused to let him return to Mercer County for further questioning by detectives. The roommate lives in Manitoba, Canada.

• While Chief Pinelli feels it is doubtful it will ever be learned what actually happened to Michael ("We don't know if he did it to himself or if someone else did it — we still don't know and we'll probably never know") he adds, "What bothers me even more is why is it coming up now when we're still investigating it?"

Complicated and Complex. Mercer County Prosecutor and former Princeton Magistrate Philip S. Carchman has described the case as "a complicated and complex investigation involving an extraordinary commitment of manpower, fiscal resources and expertise." The Trenton Times reports that the investigation has cost more than $200,000.

Detectives working on the case believe that young Phillips' death was either self-inflicted or accidental manslaughter. Murder has been ruled out.

According to Chief Pinelli, Ptl. Emann had responded to a call reporting a sick student at the school, located on Lambert Drive off Rosedale Road. Ptl. Emann arrived at 6:32 and found a proctor administering mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

The victim had complained of feeling sick earlier in the day and had vomited once around 4:15. The housemother told him, Chief Pinelli recalled, that he could lie down in his bed the rest of the evening if he wanted to.

At 6:20 a roommate of Michael's noticed that his face was turning blue and he tried, unsuccessfully, to waken him. After Ptl. Emann arrived, the victim was taken by the Princeton First Aid Squad to Princeton Medical Center where he was pronounced dead at 7:12.

Ptl. Emann thought originally that the victim might have been sniffing glue and had died choking on his own vomit. Township police recorded the death as "an unattended death."

"We weren't sure what he had died from, but we just didn't let it go," recounted Chief Pinelli. The victim's three classmates were interviewed, he said, within 40 minutes by Ptl. Emann. They and staff members of the 44-student school were interviewed again at 10:30 that night in a private home in Princeton by then Det. Bianco and Det. Offredo, the department's juvenile officer at the time.

More interviews were conducted the next day. "We never left it dangling," commented Chief Pinelli, "but we didn't know anything. There was no attempt to put a lid on it because to us it was an unexplained death at first."

When the chloroform was uncovered by the toxicologist, Det. Offredo went back to the school and inquired if there was any chloroform in the school. A check with all departments uncovered a small bottle in a science room.

A lot of work was devoted to finding out about chloroform, Chief Pinelli said. "We found out there were a lot of areas we didn't know about."

The investigation led all the way to Georgia after a county detective had traced the manufacturer of the bottle used by the school for lab experiments. Chloroform can be extremely toxic when inhaled under certain conditions and its use as an anesthetic in the United States has been banned for more than 20 years.

Chief Pinelli reported that as part of their investigation, Ptl. Emann was put under hypnosis, to take him back to see if his subconscious might reveal something he might have missed when he first arrived. "There was nothing to suggest foul play from the beginning," Chief Pinelli said.

The suit by Mrs. Phillips is expected to come to trial this spring. In a letter to the Trenton Times she concluded, "No words could ever express my grief at not being able to see his wonderful smiling face again, hear his contagious laughter or feel those big strong hugs that only a son can give."

As for Township and County detectives, the investigation into Michael Phillips' death is still listed as ongoing and active.

Xmas Fund Tops $12,000

A day before New Year's, the TOWN TOPICS' Christmas Fund has reached $12,133.87.

There is still plenty of time to contribute to the fund, administered by the Family Service Agency of Princeton, for the benefit of needy families and individuals living in this area. The 1984 appeal does not officially close until January 31.

Please make checks payable to the TOWN TOPICS' Christmas Fund, and send them to P.O. Box 664, Princeton, or drop them off at 4 Mercer Street. All contributions are tax deductible.

TALKS ARE BEGUN

Between NJT, W. Windsor. A recent meeting marked the first time officials of West Windsor and New Jersey Transit have sat across the table from each other to discuss parking and other problems caused by the upcoming renovation of the Princeton Junction station.

West Windsor Township Administrator Edward Madere said that there were no results to report from this first session, although several issues were discussed by representatives of both parties.

He said that West Windsor wanted to make New Jersey Transit aware of its concerns, particularly in regard to how parking will be handled during construction; how feeder streets in the station area will be affected, and what the reasonable expectations for long-term parking may be.

"We asked how they were planning to handle displaced commuters during the renovation," said Mr. Madere, who began his job as township administrator less than a month ago.

He said that the possibility of a feeder bus service to the station was also brought up during the meeting.

Mr. Madere characterized New Jersey Transit officials as being "extremely open and most interested in the concerns of the Township." He said that another meeting has been set for early January now that the lines of communication have been officially opened.

FUNDS ARE SOUGHT

For Ethiopian Relief. The Princeton University Ethiopian Relief Committee, a committee of the Third World Center, has organized a fund drive and fasts to raise funds for Ethiopia. One fast took place on December 12 and a second will occur on January 23. During the fasts, students can give up a day of their meal plan at the University and the Department of Food Services will donate $1.85 for each student. Also a student can sign a pledge on his or her U-Store account.

supporting the drive. The funds collected will be transferred to one of the four organizations: Africare, Inc., Catholic Relief Services, Oxfam and UNICEF. More than $12,000 has been pledged to date.

Formed by the Governance Board of the Third World Center and organized by two graduate students, George Knowles, and Regis Ozenga, this effort is advanced to relieve some of the suffering caused by prolonged drought in Ethiopia.

Members of the community can help too. Checks can be made out to: Africare, Inc., Catholic Relief Services, Oxfam or UNICEF, and sent to the Third World Center at 86 Olden Street, Princeton University. The Ethiopian Relief Committee will see that the checks are sent to the above organizations.

SILVER IS TAKEN

From Borough, Township Homes. Silver has been reported taken from two homes, one in the Borough and one the Township.

What police described as "a great deal of antique jewelry and silverware" was discovered missing the day before Christmas from a Springdale Road home. It had been entered through a patio door window which had been forced open.

Police report they are waiting for a list of missing items from the owners who were visiting in Maine at the time of the theft. The entry was discovered at 10:58 in the morning by a daughter of the victims who arrived to pick up the mail.

When she noticed the kitchen door had opened rather easily, and then observed a kitchen cabinet partially open, she called her husband and told him that someone had been in the house. Police were called and a search of the house revealed that the jewelry and silverware were missing.

The day after Christmas, Township police received a report from a Harrison Street resident that antique sterling candlesticks and silver flatware were missing from a silver storage cabinet in the dining room.

There was no forced entry. Police report the items were taken during a six- to eight-month period. Capt. Jack Petrone reported there is a possible suspect in the theft.

Three Princeton University eating clubs on Prospect Avenue were the sites of theft last week.

A stuffed tiger head and partial torso valued at $500 was taken from the unlocked Cottage Club where it had been mounted on a wall above the fireplace in the Tiger Room. Taken from the Colonial Club was a six- by nine-foot, red-patterned rug from the front entrance area, and a $200 calculator from the main living room. The theft was reported by a club officer who told police that the club door had been secured during the time of the theft — between 1:30 and 8 in the morning.

The chef's office in the Cloister Inn was entered last week by someone who punched out a pane of glass to reach in and unlock the door. Captain John J. Bellow reported that a stereo system and other items in the office were not disturbed and it is unknown what — if anything — was taken. The entry was discovered by a worker who had arrived at 7:15 in the morning to wax and polish the floors.

Township police report an attempted entry last week into a small shed at the Princeton Shopping Center where Rohotti's Florists was selling Christmas trees. No entry was made.

Police add that a five-foot Christmas tree was used to break the right front door window of a van owned by Rohotti's that was parked nearby.

Christmas Tree Thefts. With Christmas trees selling for a reported $5 per foot in the area, it is not surprising that Township police report two thefts of trees from private yards. "It happens every year at this time," commented Capt. Jack Petrone.

Someone sawed off the top five feet of an eight foot evergreen in the front yard of a Winfield Drive home in an overnight theft last week. The tree is valued at $250 by the owner.

In a similar theft, a 15-foot evergreen was removed overnight from the front yard of a Herrontown Road home.

A coin-operated telephone valued at $500 was stolen last week from the Princeton Community Housing Construction project at 300 Elm Road. It is owned by the N.J. Bell Telephone Company.

In one of two break-ins into parked cars, a Witherspoon Street resident told police that, while her 1979 Ford was parked in a Maclean Street lot last week, someone threw a cinder block through the driver's side window. Taken from inside the car was $7 in change from the center console.

The unlocked car of a Lawrenceville resident was entered between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. last week while it was parked in the PSI lot off Hulfish Street. She lost a $77 green blouse, a $48 pink blouse, a $67 clutch handbag, two leather sunglass cases valued at $28.50 and $18.50 and a $115 grey silk dress. The victim told police all were Christmas gifts she was intending to return. Also taken were two radio speakers valued at $35.

A man's 10-speed red, white and blue Astra bicycle valued at $100 was taken last week from the porch of a Dickinson Street home. Taken with the bike was a $10 cable lock that had been threaded through the wheel and frame.

DRUG CHARGE FOLLOWS

Speeding Stop. A driver stopped last week on Mercer Street for speeding 36 in a 25-mile zone, ended up being charged with possession of marijuana.

The driver, identified by police as John A. McKoy, 20, of Route 27, was stopped by PU Michael Taylor near Springdale Road at 9 a.m.

When the officer asked for his identification, he observed in plain view in the glove compartment a round mirror, the type often used, according to police, by drug users to separate seeds from marijuana.

PU Taylor asked to see the mirror and observed some marijuana residue. He asked what it was the driver allegedly replied that it was marijuana leaves. When the officer informed him there was sufficient cause to make a search, he asked the driver if he had any other contraband and he replied, "yes."

He then reached under the seat, police said, and produced an envelope containing less than 25 grams of marijuana. McKoy was taken to police headquarters where he was issued summonses for possession of a controlled dangerous substance and speeding, and then released, pending his court appearance here January 16.

ACCIDENTS FOLLOW SNOW

In Township. The season's first measurable snowfall last week resulted in four skidding accidents Thursday in the Township.

At 7:59 in the morning, two cars collided on Princeton-Kingston Road between Locust Lane and Snowden Lane when one driven by a Somerset resident started to slide. A Princeton resident, operating the car behind, tried to stop but hit an icy area and slid into the skidding car in front. Both cars were driven away.

At 8:37, a Manville resident was driving on Washington Road between Hartley Avenue and Ivy Lane when a car heading in the opposite direction, operated by a Princeton resident, started to skid across the center line. The subsequent crash left no injuries but one car had to be towed from the scene.

At 10:15, a Rocky Hill resident lost control of her car on Route 206 between Arreton and Ewing Street because of slippery road conditions. Her car struck a tree and had to be towed but the 47-year-old driver suffered no injuries.

A 21-year-old Mercerville resident was the day's final accident victim. Her car slid in slush on Quaker Road a half-mile from Route 1 at 1:34 in the afternoon and struck a tree. The driver escaped injury but her car had to be towed.

SMOKE BUT NO FIRE

On Witherspoon Street. An employee of the Athenian Pizza and Restaurant, 25 Witherspoon Street, called police at 7:08 Saturday night reporting smoke in the rear and basement of the building.

Police, the Princeton fire chief and 20 firemen arrived and made a complete search of the restaurant and the buildings on either side but were unable to determine what caused the smoke. There was no fire and no answers.

PARKED CARS VISITED

By Vandals. Borough police last week reported three instances of criminal mischief involving parked cars.

The left front window of a 1972 Ford was shattered while it was parked for three days in the lot off Hulfish Street. There was no evidence of any attempted entry, said police, who listed the owner as a Palmer Square resident.

A passenger-side front window of a 1982 Ford was broken while it was parked last week on Maclean Street where the owner lives. The only item taken, police said, was a coffee cup which was found broken on the ground. The lock of a 1980 Datsun owned by a Verona resident was tampered with last week while the car was parked overnight in a Maclean Street lot. No entry was gained.

A resident of Princeton-Kingston Road was driving north on Route 27 between Carnegie Road and Prospect Avenue the day after Christmas when a BB pellet struck the windshield of her Volkswagen station wagon. Police report the pellet left a hole in the windshield which is valued at $200.

TWINS BORN

At Medical Center. In the week ending December 27, there were 12 boys and eight girls born at Princeton Medical Center, including twin sons to Guy and Carmel Sabo, 16 Heathwood Lane, Hamilton.

Sons were also born to John and Virginia Oleary, 12 Keats Road, Yardley, Pa., December 21; Jonathan and Rosemarie Williams, 113 Jacobs Creek Road, Ewing; Richard and Lorraine Holcome, 8 Zieglers Lane, Hamilton, both on December 22; Howard and Doris Spencer, 27 Fabrow Drive, Titusville, December 23;

News of The THEATRES

TWO BY BECKETT

At McCarter's Stage II. From January 16 through January 27 McCarter Theatre will present its annual Stage Two productinn, this year featuring a pair of Samuel Beckett plays — "Happy Days" and "Act Without Words I" — at Theatre Intime in Murray Dodge Hall. Robert Lanchester, McCarter's associate artistic director, will direct; Penelope Reed and Nat Warren-White, members of McCarter's resident acting company, will head the cast.

With its Stage Two productioo McCarter presents new, experimental works as well as works which demand a more intimate space than McCarter's mainstage can provide. In the past four years McCarter has presented new plays at Stage Two. This year Stage Two will fulfill one of its other functions which is to tackle important classic or contemporary drama that would be enhanced by a smaller theatre.

Mr. Lanchester has chosen to present two works by Samuel Beckett — the "granddaddy" of modern theatre. Mr. Beckett won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1969 and is credited with having changed the shape of contemporary drama. In preparing for this year's Stage Two production, Mr. Lanchester noted, "I hope to dispel the illusion that Beckett is 'bleak' and 'incomprehensible.'" Mr. Laochester stresses that Beckett's plays are both humorous and enjoyable and, indeed, that many of his works are characterized by "an earthy sense of humor."

That "earthy sense of humor" is particularly evident in "Happy Days" which tells the story of Winnie, a woman being sucked into the earth and yet who still fills every day with thoughts, dreams and little daily activities. Her life is enriched by communicatioos with Willie, her more mobile, most taciturn, husband. Penelope Reedd will perform the tour de force of Winnie, with Nat Warren-White as her dear old Willie.

A short curtain raiser, "Act Without Words I," will precede "Happy Days" and features McCarter's resident mime, Nat Warren-White. It is a struggle between Man and the Universe. Man is thrown onto a desert stage and helped out with various objects — a tree, a carafe of water, a rope, etc. He tries to deal with this environmeot, which has a playful, whimsical and maybe even unfair mind of its owo.

Tickets for Stage Two are $7 for the public, $4 for McCarter Associates and $3.50 for groups of 10 or more. Call McCarter's Box Office at 452-5200 to order tickets or for more information, noon to 6 daily.

Twyla Tharp Dance will present when it returns to McCarter Theatre for the first time since 1977 for three performances beginning Friday, January 11.

A limited number of tickets still remain for the Tharp company's first program, which will be offered Friday and Saturday, January 11 and 12, at 8 p.m. "Nine Sinatra Songs," the hit of the company's New York season last winter at the Brooklyn Academy of Music, is Ms. Tharp's setting of nine of Frank Sinatra's most familiar classics, including "My Way," "All the Way," "One for My Baby and One More for the Road," "Somethin' Stupid," "Forget Domani," "Softly as I Leave You," "Strangers in the Night" and "That's Life," each song danced as a duet. This program will also include the Eastern U.S. premiere of one of Ms. Tharp's newest works not yet seen in New York, "The Fugue," and "Brahms-Paganini," set to Brahms' Paganini Variations for piano.

The best selection of tickets for the Tharp company remain for the added matinee performance on Sunday, January 13 at 2:30 p.m., at which the program will include two more new works by Ms. Tharp: "Sorrow Floats," set to music of Bizet; and "Short Stories," which utilizes songs by Bruce Springsteen and Supertramp. This program will conclude with a Twyla Tharp classic, "Baker's Dozen," set to piano rags and blues played by Willie "The Lion" Smith.

Tickets to Twyla Tharp Dance are $13 and $16 and can be purchased by calling McCarter's Box Office.

BARITONE TO SING

In Friends of Music Concert. Baritone Robert Freedman will give a concert on Sunday, January 13, at 3 in the McAlpin Rehearsal Room at Woolworth Center, on the University campus. He will be accompanied by Cynthia Freedman, pianist.

A graduate of the Eastman School of Music, Mr. Freedman spent a number of years teaching and performing in Canada. In 1981, he returned to the U.S. to attend the Hebrew Union College, following a course of study leading to investiture as a Cantor. He is presently the Cantor of the Jewish Center here.

Robert Freedman

Mrs. Freedman graduated from the University of North Carolina. She continued her studies in Italy and has specialized in accompanying singers and chamber music groups in Europe, Canada and the U.S. She currently teaches piano in Princeton.

For his program, Mr. Freedman will sing works by Beckwith, Poulenc, Lazar Weiner, Joel Engels, George Butterworth and Brahms. Sponsored by the Friends of Music, the concert is free.

PIANIST TO PLAY

At University. Pianist Christopher Sanborn returns to the McAlpin Rehearsal Room at Woolworth Center for a free concert on Friday, January 11, sponsored by the Friends of Music.

Mr. Sanborn received his training at the Juilliard School and at the State Universities of New York at Purchase and Stony Brook. His teachers have included Gilbert Kalish, Lucy Greene, and Sascha Gorodnitzki. Winner of the Mary Simon Gindhart and the

For his program, Mr. Sanborn will play Mozart's 10 Variations on "Come un agnello" by Sarti, Beethoven's Sonata in E-Flat Major, Opus 27, Scriabin's Sonata No. 4 in F-Sharp Major, Opus 30, and the 24 Preludes, Opus 28 by Chopin.

REGISTRATION BEGUN

For Children's Music Classes. Marjorie's Music will accept registration for the winter semester of programs for instruction in music for children.

Kindermusic Play offers a program of music instruction for children ages 4 to 7 with additional creative activities. Children learn to play a glockenspiel (similar to the white keys of the piano), read from a primer, keep time in chanting games, distinguish pitch in listening exercises, move eurythmically to express musical sound, and identify the many instruments of the musical world.

Piano Play offers group and private piano instruction for primary level. Morning Musical is a new program offered each month for instruction in music through musical plays; for instance, "Peter and the Wolf" will be acted eurythmically while children learn to read the notations of the music; "Rumpelstiltskin" will be used for teaching rhythm of language.

Each month will concentrate on a new play and enrollment should be made by the first of each month. Musical games will also be offered for these sessions held on Saturdays from noon to 1 p.m.

For further information, call (201) 297-6151.

NAMED TO FACULTY

At Conservatory. Westminster Conservatory has hired three new faculty members to augment its private instruction program. They are Melissa Bohl, oboeist, Alison Simpson, harpist, and Brian Yatauro, percussionist. This expands to 18 the number of instruments on which students may obtain private instruction. Voice instruction, composition, conducting and theory are also available.

Ms. Bohl is an accomplished oboeist who is currently in the doctoral program at Princeton University. Her master's degrees are from Princeton and the University of Notre Dame, and her undergraduate study was done at the Eastman School of Music. Ms. Bohl has taught for the University of Southern Mississippi and the University of Notre Dame; and has performed as soloist and principal oboeist with orchestra, as a solo recitalist and chamber musician.

Miss Simpson is a native of New Hope, Pa., who has based her performance career in the Delaware Valley. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Wheaton College and one from the Cleveland Institute of Music, in harp performance. She is currently a master's

ENGAGEMENTS

Kevorkian-Merritt. Karen A. Kevorkian, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Victor Kevorkian of Belle Mead, to Douglas K. Merritt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas H. Merritt.

Miss Kevorkian graduated from Rutgers College in 1983 and is employed in advertising and public relations by United Counties Trust Co. of Cranford.

Mr. Merritt graduated from the University of Hartford in 1982. He has been a life insurance agent and is involved in financial planning for the Alfred H. Merritt Insurance Agency of Rocky Hill.

The couple plan to be married on April 27.

Watt-Paine. Wendy Watt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William R. Watt of Princeton Junction, to Willis F. Paine III, son of Dr. and Mrs. Willis F. Paine II, Lambert Drive.

Miss Watt is a graduate of Princeton High School and the University of Delaware. She is a special education teacher in the Manalapan-Englishtown School District.

Mr. Paine attended the Stowe School in Stowe, Vt., Mercer County Community College, and Princeton University. He is employed by Nassau Conover Motor Co.

A July wedding is planned.

Princiotta-Eiker. Theresa Princiotta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Princiotta of West Windsor, to Barry S. Eiker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kochis of Windsor and Fred Eiker of Levittown, Pa.

Both are graduates of West Windsor-Plainsboro High School. Miss Eiker is employed by McGraw-Hill Book Co. in Hightstown. Mr. Princiotta is a foreman for Robert H. Kraeger, Inc.

A June wedding is planned at St. Paul's Church in Princeton.

WEDDINGS

McMorris-Tweedy. Clare B. Tweedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Tweedy of New York City and Brewster, New York, to Howard McMorris II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. McMorris, Bayard Lane; December 31 at the home of the bride's parents in Brewster. The Venerable

Mrs. Howard McMorris II

Robert A. Bryan, Archdeacon of the Quebec North Shore and cousin of the bride, performed the Episcopal ceremony.

Mrs. McMorris attended The Brearley School and Le Grand Verger in Switzerland and was graduated from Emma Willard School. A graduate of Middlebury College and The Georgetown University Law Center, she is a partner in the law firm of Lihn & Menaker in New York. Previously, she was associated with the New York law firm of Cahill Gordon & Reindel and for two-and-a-half years was in charge of the firm's Paris office.

Mr. McMorris, a graduate of Deerfield Academy and Princeton University, attended the Goethe Institute in Germany and worked with the Societe Generale in Paris under the AIESEC Program. He is responsible for worldwide relationships with French financial institutions at The Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York. He was previously with the International Division of the Philadelphia National Bank. Mr. McMorris is a trustee of the Westminster Choir College.

The couple will live in New York City.

Baker-Crawley. Deborah L. Crawley, daughter of Mrs. Kathleen F. Crawley and the late Dr. Lawrence Q. Crawley, to Warren V. Baker, son of Mrs. Marjorie C. Baker of Princeton and Nantucket, Mass., and Elias B. Baker; December 29 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Nantucket, the Rev. Herbert Stevens officiating.

Mrs. Baker graduated from Swarthmore College and attended St. Leonards School in St. Andrews, Scotland. She was formerly membership director of the British-American Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Baker attended Phillips Academy, Andover, and Princeton Day School. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania and is a partner in the law firm of Winston & Strawn in Chicago. His previous marriage ended in divorce.

After a honeymoon in Jamaica, the couple will live in Chicago and Lakeside, Mich.

Fodor-Siebens. Jennifer A. Siebens, daughter of Mrs. Allen C. Siebens of Hunter Road and the late Mr. Siebens, to Gyorgy Fodor of Paris, France, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vince Fodor of Budapest, Hungary; December 29 at Trinity Church in Princeton, the Rev. Jean Smith officiating.

The bride, a graduate of Oberlin College and The Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism, is bureau chief for CBS News in Paris. She was a member of the Junior Assembly.

Mr. Fodor, a cinematographer, graduated from the Academy of Theatrical and Cinematographic Arts in Budapest and The Sorbonne in Paris.

Chamber's Attitude Wrong.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

Following is the text of a letter I have sent to the Princeton Chamber of Commerce.

As a member of the Chamber of Commerce and a businessman in Princeton for many years, I must object to the Chamber's attitude and in the Princeton Borough parking situation and enforcement thereof.

The Chamber has taken the attitude that employees in the center of Princeton are not their customers. By restricting parking and making it available for 'outsiders,' to the detriment of central Princeton employees, they have effectively asked all of my employees and the employees of most other businesses who can not provide close by parking spaces, to shop at Quaker Bridge Mall, the Princeton Shopping Center, Mercer Mall and other outlying areas that do provide parking.

So be it. If the shortsightedness of the Chamber warps their view so that they do not wish central town employees-employers to shop within Princeton, then they deserve the results.

There is, in addition another critical factor. As one of the larger commercial realtors operating within Princeton for many years, it now becomes my distasteful task to recommend that business do not locate within the center core area. How can I honestly recommend offices or other businesses to locate here, when I know that their employees will be harrassed?

As a businessman with contacts in many other cities, I find Princeton to be very unique. Princeton's Chamber and the Borough authorities are influenced by the selfish, short-sighted attitude of a few merchants who advertise heavily to bring 'outsiders' into our community. Virtually nowhere else is this done, and I am sure that this is one of the explanations as to why outlying growth has far exceeded the monetary value of growth within our community.

WINTER COURSES BEGIN

Especially for Children. The winter session at the Princeton YWCA begins January 7 with a wide variety of programs available for preschool and grade school children.

"Crafts for Little Bookworms" for 3 to 5-year-olds on Thursday mornings features stories by well-known authors followed by related craft activities. Marching, playing, and making musical instruments are some of the activities included in "I Love a Parade" for 3 to 4-year-olds on Monday mornings. "Games Kids Love to Play" features a wide variety of active and quiet group games for 3½-4½ year olds.

Grade school youngsters can explore interests and develop skills in two handcraft programs. "Fun With Needlecrafts" features the opportunity for 5-7 year olds to learn a sampling of stitchery techniques while working on projects of their choice. In "Stitch 'n Stuff," 8-12 year olds will be designing and embroidering T-shirts, needlepointing pillows, and quilting.

Youngsters interested in mathematics should find fun in the challenges of "Arithmetricks," where algebra, fractions, and trigonometry are explored through the use of manipulatives. Nine-to twelve-year-olds will have the opportunity to learn more about babies in the new "Boys & Babies, Girls & Babies" course. Real babies will help to teach young people about feeding, bathing, changing diapers, and creative play.

Other programs for grade school children featured this winter include "Dungeons and Dragons" plus courses in juggling and babysitting, tips and techniques.

Registration is now being accepted for these and other YWCA programs. For more information, call 924-5571.

TALK PLANNED

On Battle of Princeton. Richard W. Baker Jr., president of the Princeton Battlefield Area Preservation Society, will speak on the events of the Battle of Princeton and its significance at 11 a.m. Thursday, January 3, at the flagpole in Battlefield Park, Mercer Road.

Clarke House, where General Mercer died nine days after the battle, will be open to visitors after the talk.

This year marks the 208th anniversary of the Battle of Princeton, considered a turning point in the Revolutionary War.

The public is invited to attend

WINNERS ANNOUNCED

For Guild Raffle. The winning ticket in the recent raffle sponsored by the Artisan's Guild of the Princeton YWCA belonged to Carol Bell of Pennington First prize was a handmade, double-bed sized quilt stitched in the Bear Paw pattern

Margaret Goheen won second prize — a velvet and corduroy wall hanging designed by Elaine Brower Third prize, a handmade Velveteen Rabbit, was won by Maria Bovie of East Millstone.

Three $10 gift certificates to be used at the Guild Shop were garnered by Sue Ellen Johnson of Hopewell, Mary Philpott of Princeton's Biology Department and Mabel Liang of Pennington

Proceeds from this annual fund-raiser enable the Artisan's Guild to operate its shop and to continue its program of classes and workshops. The Artisan's Guild promotes the creation and use of quality handwork by offering classes at the YWCA and by providing a sales outlet for area artisans.

A selection day for potential consignors to the Guild will be held on January 28. Artisans should bring a sampling of their work to the Lounge in the YWCA YMCA Program Building between 10 and 2. At this time a jury of several crafters will evaluate the items submitted on the basis of workmanship, design and marketability.

The Artisan's Guild shop, located in the lounge, will reopen for business on January 8 Full of unusual items made by more than 50 area consignors, the shop has gifts for young and old alike Shop hours are 11 to 3, Tuesday through Friday, from October through May.

For further information about the Artisan's Guild, call 924-0501.

WORKSHOPS OFFERED

In Self-Esteem. The Gabrielsen Group will conduct two self-esteem workshops focusing on self-acceptance and self-assertion, beginning Tuesday, January 22. The groups will be offered for both day and evening sessions for six consecutive weeks.

The day workshops will be run by Lois Harris. Diane Seessel will lead the evening sessions Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Seessel are New Jersey Certified Alcoholism Counselors with extensive experience as group leaders.

The workshops, though run by alcoholism counselors, are designed for anyone who wants to develop a higher sense of self-esteem The goal is to give people new ways of approaching old situations. The groups will meet every Tuesday, starting January 22. The cost is $25 per session. Enrollment is co-ed and limited to ten people per session

The Gabrielsen Group is a private counseling group in Pennington specializing in alcoholism problems For further information, contact The Gabrielsen Group, 65 South Main Street, Pennington, 737-8070.

HOAGIE SALE SET

House Delivery, Too. The eighth-grade class of John Witherspoon Middle School will prepare and deliver hoagies on Super Sunday, January 20. The hoagie sale is part of the students' campaign to raise money for the eighth grade class trip to Washington, D.C., which is planned for the spring.

The hoagies will cost $4 each and will be submarine size. They must be paid for at the time of purchase either in cash or by checks made out to J.W. Washington, '85.

For additional information, call Don Blankenbush at the middle school, 924-5600, or at home, 924-6481.

RELIGION

THEOLOGIAN TO VISIT

Five Weeks at Trinity. The Rev. Thom Blair will begin a five-week visit this Sunday as Theologian in Residence at Trinity Church.

During the period from January 6 to February 10, Mr. Blair will speak at each of the regular Sunday morning Open Forums held at 10:15 in Pierce Hall He will also "preach a mission" — the term Episcopalians use for leading a revival — on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, February 5-7, at 7:30 p.m. in the church. He will end his visit with a sermon at a Festival Eucharist at 10 a.m. on Sunday, February 10. These events are open to the entire community; further information is available from the church office at 924-2277.

The theme of Mr. Blair's series of talks, appropriate to the season of Epiphany, is "Bearing Witness to the Light." He will explore in particular the ministry of lay persons and their roles as members of the body of Christ. His first Open Forum, this Sunday at 10:15 a.m., is on the topic "Christ's Ministry and Ours."

Born in Virginia, Mr. Blair received a B.A. from the University of Virginia, a M.Div. from Virginia Theological Seminary, and a D.Min. from Eden Theological Seminary. A former Rector of Trinity Church, Boston, and before that Dean of Christ church Cathedral in St. Louis, Mr. Blair is currently serving as interim rector of Calvary Church, Pittsburgh.

BULLETIN NOTES

J.S. Bach's Christmas Cantata No. 142, "For Unto Us A Child is Born" will be performed this Sunday at 10:30 by the choir of the Lutheran Church of the Messiah, 407 Nassau Street. The choir will be accompanied by a string ensemble.

could go far toward abating or eliminating the present ugly and unhealthy overflows which now occur in some areas. The inspection program will continue and will be extended into the Township with a completion date for its first phase estimated for June 1985. If this program continues to find that roughly every fifth house has an improper connection, the elimination of these alone could go far toward solving our problem.

"All Upbeat. To conclude our report on sewers, it's all upbeat in my opinion. While our problems are far from over, and we're sure there will be some who feel we should move faster, the point is that we are moving at quite a respectable pace. We expect to see all overflows eliminated within two to three years. Your cooperation with the Sewer Operating Committee in its inspection program is earnestly requested.

"Princeton Township has shown considerable growth during 1984. The attractions of that magic zip code 08540 have not diminished. We now have rateables totalling $662,071,250, according to the assessor's office. This is an increase of $13,215,200, or about two percent more than the previous year.

"The good news is that this will have a positive effect on our real estate tax note. However, I think that all of us must view growth as a mixed blessing. The needs for infrastructure improvements generated by such growth can all too easily outweigh any tax advantages.

Mt. Laurel. "Looking ahead to the following year we see the following:

"Mt. Laurel is not going to go away. Though we are cautiously optimistic that realization is beginning to surface around the state that zoning by court fiat is not an optimum solution to the problem, Mt. Laurel will occupy much of our time and effort. We shall continue to fight as strongly as possible along the lines which we have previously spelled out at various public meetings to preserve the present nature of Princeton.

"Interestingly enough, compliance with Mt. Laurel has turned out to have some cap law implications apparently never given adequate consideration by either the courts or the legislature. Our staff is currently exploring the ramifications of the situation.

"Sewers will require renewed effort, in spite of gratifying recent progress. In addition to the many repairs cited earlier, the infamous Harry's Brook trunk line is scheduled for increasing attention in '85. Further, it is our recommendation that the Sewer Operating Committee be increased in number by one additional citizen from both the Borough and the Township in order to give our citizenry a stronger voice in the operation of this agency. This will require ordinancing in both municipalities.

Trash Collection. "In view of the continuing solid waste problems across the whole state and our local transfer station's projected closing in June, we have requested our Engineer and Administrator to investigate the possibility of extending municipal garbage and trash collection to the entire Township. It's too early to say how this will turn out, but it's beginning to look like the best solution.

"Further, we hope to couple it with an effective re-cycling program, possibly along the lines of that recently instituted in Hightstown.

"The yearly municipal leaf collection is an item which we have targeted for improvement in 1985. Judging by the number of calls received, it has not been satisfactory for several years. In '84, with warm, wet weather which made the leaves fall late, plus a number of vacancies on our public works crew, we had more difficulties than usual. A possible solution, which we

Jonathan D. Mount

Jonathan D. Mount of Princeton Junction has been appointed division vice president, employee relations, of Hertz Rent A Car. He previously served as director, personnel, of C I T Financial Services, Livingston, N.J. Earlier, he was manager, industrial relations, for RCA Corporation's Consumer Electronics Division in Monticello, Indiana.

Area students were honored at the Fall Varsity Sports Dinner at The Lawrenceville School.

From Princeton, they are William W. Allen, soccer, Robert J. Bergman and Gregory A. Postel, water polo, William S. Davidson and Kevin G. Volpp, cross country, and Peter J.S. Smith, soccer.

From Princeton Junction, Daniel M. Tapiero, water polo; from Pennington, John A. Rogula, water polo; and from Lawrenceville, Stephen G. Salerno II, cross country, and Keith R. Colivita, Michael J. Duffy, Andrew T. Mott, and Stephen W. Nape, soccer.

Mike Bull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Bull, Mount Lucas Road, has pledged Lambda Chi Alpha at Marietta College, Marietta, Ohio. He is a 1984 graduate of The Hun School.

Air Force Capt. Rani A. Kokatour, daughter of Arvind V. and Sylvia C. Kokatnur of 667 Line Road, Belle Mead, has arrived for duty at Langley Air Force Base, Va. A clinical nurse with the Air Force Hospital, she was previously assigned at RAF Lakenheath, England.

Sgt. Carlin D. Burford, son of Virginia J. Burford of 243 Eldridge Avenue, Lawrence Township, has been decorated with the U.S. Air Force Commendation Medal at Dover Air Force Base, Del. The Air Force Commendation Medal is awarded to those individuals who demonstrate outstanding achievement or meritorious service in the performance of their duties on behalf of the Air Force.

W. Jason Morgan, 42 Western Way, professor of geophysics at Princeton University, was the recipient of the New York Academy of Sciences Award in Physical and Mathematical Sciences at the Academy's 167th annual meeting held in New York City. Dr. Morgan was presented a certificate of citation and an award of $1,500 for his outstanding contributions in geophysics.

Dr. Morgan is one of the three creators of plate tectonic theory. He developed the concepts of plate rotation, mantle plumes, triple junctions, and propagating rifts.

Plate tectonics is the theory that the earth's outer shell is divided into a small number of rigid plates which constantly move with respect to each other. Dr. Morgan also formulated the "hotspot" or "plume" hypothesis which explains the apparent migration of volcanic centers and other "hotspots" across the face of the earth.

Theodore Ziolkowski, 50 Springdale Road, incoming president of the Modern Language Association, will join a panel of independent scholars at the MLA annual convention in Washington, D.C., Saturday, December 29, at 10:15 in the Sheraton Hotel to discuss practical ways in which MLA can help sustain the productivity of independent scholars within their professions. Dr. Ziolkowski is Dean of the Graduate School at Princeton University.

The panel will be moderated by Gloria C. Erlich of the Princeton Research Forum.

Air Force Senior Airman Michael I. Van Sant, son of Carolyn J. Swank of Skillman

FEEL REFRESHED... FEEL RELAXED...
FEEL GREAT!
Relieve Tension. Melt those body aches and pains away. Soothe tired muscles after exercise with an invigorating massage by master masseur Angelo DiMeglio at the Princeton Total Health Massage Center.

During his 28 years as a masseur - 25 in the military hospital on the Italian island of Ischia and 3 in private practice here in the Princeton area - Mr. DiMeglio mastered the European technique of massage which stresses the use of the masseur's fingers. The fingers, being the most sensitive part of the hand, enable Mr. DiMeglio to feel exactly what your needs are and adjust your massage to fulfill your specific needs. You leave feeling more than refreshed and relaxed. You leave feeling great!

Come in today for a free consultation. Full and partial massages are available.

Leroy L. Schwartz

Leroy L. Schwartz MD, Rosedale Lane, has been re-elected chairman of the New Jersey State Drug Utilization Council. Dr. Schwartz, in addition to practicing pediatrics, is president of the Princeton Institute for Health Policy and Health Policy International, both research and educational organizations.

The utilization review council identifies the conditions under which pharmacists would be permitted to make substitutions for brand name products prescribed by physicians.

Pvt. Betina A. Woolensack, daughter of Michael D. and Patricia K. Woolensack, 55 Willow Road, Belle Mead, has completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C. She is a 1984 graduate of Montgomery High School.

Borough Attorney and Council Member Richard Woodbridge, has published a booklet entitled, So You Want to Sell Your Program? Tips for Starting up o New Softwore Venture.

Chapter headings include "Getting Into the Market," "Selling to a Middleman," "Should You Incorporate?", "Marketing the Software," and "Raising Money."

Mr. Woodbridge, whose firm specializes in patents, trademarks, and copyrights, also provides details about copyright, trademark, trade secret, and licensing protection.

Copies of the booklet can be obtained by sending $4.50 to Mr. Woodbridge at Mathews, Woodbridge, Goebel, Pugh & Collins, P.A., 357 Nassau Street, Princeton, N.J. 08540.

have asked the Township Engineer to explore, lies in hiring a number of temporary workers just for this effort so that it can be done in a more efficient and timely fashion.

"Next, we finally realize that Princeton Township does not exist in a vacuum. It has countless interactions with neighboring municipalities, state and county agencies, individual citizens and groups of citizens. We have met with many such groups and individuals over the years to discuss a considerable spectrum of problems. But we believe this effort must be continued, particularly with the growth pressures we are facing. Outreach, if we may call it that, will continue to be one of our priorities in '85.

Evening Hours. "Another idea, currently under study, is the opening of some Township offices during the evening hours. There is a need for this in today's world in which both husband and wife often have jobs which make it impossible to visit Township offices during normal working hours. It is my hope that this can be put into operation at some time during the spring, after Township Committee gets its budget finalized.

"Last, fire protection is still one of our concerns. We are presently awaiting the results of a study jointly commissioned by the Borough and Township of the operation of the Borough's Fire Department which is two-thirds paid for by the Township. With this study in hand, we hope to be able to put our three volunteer fire companies on a firmer footing to more effectively serve you.

A gift for you — from you:

This is the season to open or add to a Nassau Savings IRA.

Earn highest interest, save on your '84 income tax, while you build a financially secure future with a Nassau Savings IRA (Individual Retirement Account). It's a great gift for yourself.

Anyone who is gainfully employed, even those with an employer pension plan, is eligible. You can contribute up to $2,000 annually, or up to $2,250 if your spouse does not earn outside income. Contributions are tax deductible and interest earned tax deferred until you start to withdraw from your IRA (between 59½ and 70½), when most people are in a lower tax bracket.

Develop the profitable IRA habit at the Nassau Savings nearest you. Open your account with as little as $20 or more. Add to your IRA whenever you desire, there's no minimum required. You can contribute, and save 1984 income taxes, until you file your federal return (up to April 15, 1985).

The younger you start the greater the tax savings, and the more you will accumulate for a financially secure future. Happy Holidays!

'THE HAPPY SEASON'

Paintings of Children. The holiday exhibition, "The Happy Season," a display of sentimental paintings currently on view at the gallery at Squibb, is a reminder that people have never grown tired of painting or looking at pictures of children. Described as "a tribute to the realism and poetry of early childhood: the happy season of life," the collection spans more than 150 years and features portraits and genre painting in a traditional mode.

The exhibition begins, chronologically, with several early 19th-century American works executed in the mannered style that was popular at that time. Evocative as early Americana, and for their timeless yet nostalgic essence, these earliest paintings are also among the most moving in the display.

Several later 19th-century works are almost as appealing. There's nothing quite like apple cheeked lads with toes peeking out of worn, high button shoes and rosy, barefoot young girls with flowers when it comes to looking fondly backward.

Prints and drawings, too, are part of the display. A chalk sketch of the artist's daughter, by Emanuel Leutze (of 'Washington Crossing the Delaware' fame) is one of the most artistically impressive in this collection. Although small, the sensitive work is imposing in its execution and is appealing in its manner of presentation as well. A rare Renoir lithograph, too, makes for interesting viewing.

Later works, including some of fairly recent vintage, are mainly portraits, and, as such, are probably more interesting to the subjects and their families than to the public at large. There are a few, however - figurative works in landscape settings — that are worth considering as more serious painting, too.

At the Gallery of Fine Art. A collection of artistically diverse work by gallery artists features an impressive assortment of media and styles. Photography, printmaking, painting and sculpture can be seen in modes ranging from comfortable realism to more intellectually demanding varieties of abstract and nonobjective forms.

An enormous, photographically based picture of an astronaut moving about in space by Naomi Savage, made from painted magnesium plates, forms the visual centerpiece of the exhibit. It also provides interesting artistic contrast with the varied styles that surround it.

Among the other works in the gallery are Werner Drewes' etchings and woodcuts — non-objective graphics rendered in the controlled, geometric style for which the artist is best known; intense abstracted landscape painting by Ralph Rosenborg; a pair of large, figurative lithographs by David Hockney; and several works by well known New Jersey artist, George Segal. In addition, a large, richly colored relief print by Sam Glankoff introduces the work of the late artist, a prolific and talented man who refused to exhibit his work before the public during his lifetime.

GOVERNOR'S TENNIS GRANT: Governor Thomas H. Kean, center, presents a $2,000 check for The Art Museum, Princeton University, to Harriet Senie, associate director of the museum. The grant resulted from proceeds of the Third Annual Governor's Invitational Tennis Tournament held last summer at Princeton University. On the far left is William F. Faherty Jr., assistant to the president, First National State Bank, and on the far right is New Jersey Secretary of State Jane Burgio.

Tuesday, January 15 from 5 to 7 p.m. Regular gallery hours are 12-5, Tuesday through Saturday. This is the only showing of "Alternating Currents" outside New York City.

"State of Mind/State of the Union" is timed to coincide with the Presidential Inauguration and the State of the Union address. It is viewed as a forum for socially concerned artists to express their views on the state of culture and politics.

TRIP TO FRANCE SET

By Art Association. The Princeton Art Association has begun accepting reservations for its spring trip to the French provinces of Aunis and Saintonge, which are located along the Atlantic coast south of Brittany and north of Bordeaux.

Among the towns to be visited are La Rochelle, Saintes, Brouage, and Blaye. The trip runs from April 26 to May 11.

Art director is Dr. Jan Laurens Siesling, former assistant professor at the Art History Institute of Amsterdam's Free University. Tour coordinator is Marguerite Weare, a native of La Rochelle.

For further information, call the PAA at 921-9173.

EXHIBITS

The photographs of David G. Ritchey will be on display through January 10 at the Montgomery National Bank, Routes 206 and 518, Rocky Hill. The exhibit includes images in both black-and-white and color.

Mr. Ritchey has received over 60 awards for photography. His work is currently featured in an international group photography show at Mussavi Arts Center in New York. In addition, his photographs may be seen at Abelle Gallery in Princeton and The Village Gallery in New Hope, Pa.

The Arts Council of Princeton will present a group art exhibition entitled "Alternating Currents" from January 15-24. This exhibition is part of a larger series of events called "State of Mind/State of the Union," which has been organized by PADD (Political Art Documentation/Distribution), a New York City artists' group.

Ron Rogerson

In 1981, when Jack Bicknell left Maine for Boston College, Rogerson was named to his first head coaching position. In four years there, his record with the Black Bears was 19-23-1. One of those victories came against the Tigers in 1981 in Palmer Stadium, 55-44.

Rogerson's best season, and his only winning one, came the following year when his team finished 7-4, and shared the championship of the Yankee Conference. His success earned him Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Rogerson's first task here will be to complete his coaching staff. He already plans to bring Steve Tosches, his offensive coordinator for four years at Maine, with him. His defensive coordinatnr, Bob DePew, may come also. That leaves four other spots. Possibly one, or at most two, might be filled from Navarro's staff.

The decision will come within the next few days, because Rogerson must get the recruiting effort back on track. During the next several weeks, high school seniors across the county will begin to make choices. And it will he up to Rogersnn and his staff to convince those with good football skills, who also want an education, to choose Princeton.

—Jeb Stuart

THEY'RE SMILING NOW: It was all smiles when Princeton athletic director Bob Myslik (standing) introduced the University's new head football coach Ron Rogerson. If the former University of Maine coach can turn the Tigers into winners, they'll be smiling next November, too. (Bob Matthews photo)

THREE GAMES ON TAP

For Tiger Hockey Team. Princeton University may be no match for Notre Dame on the football field, but put the boys on skates and the Tigers may have an edge.

The Fighting Irish come to Baker Rink this Wednesday (January 2) for the first meeting ever between the twn schools in this sport. Following them, the Orange and Black will face more traditional and stronger opponents, St. Lawrence on Friday and Clarkson, Saturday. All three games hegin at 7:30.

The Notre Dame athletic department prefers to concentrate its efforts on football and basketball, and has not elevated ice hockey to the varsity level. The game is played as a club sport at the school, and no varsity letters are awarded.

The ND squad compiled a 23-5-1 reenrd a year ago, hut through 12 games this season is only 5-7, and winless on the road. Opponents this year have included Penn State, Michigan-Dearhorn, St. Thomas, Air Force, Alabama-Huntsville and Lake Forest.

Both teams will be playing after a long layoff, and if the Tigers can get things going they should gain their seventh victory against four losses. On the weekend, they have at least a good chonce at a split.

On paper, St. Lawrence is the weaker of the two teams. It has already lost to Clarkson once, and its record through December 17 was 4-3 in ECAC Division I competition. Clarkson was 6-1 through the same date, and in second place in the league standings.

Both schools have good-sized win streaks going against the Tigers. The Saints have won five straight, the last Princeton win coming in February 1980. Clarkson has won eight consecutive contests, dating back to a 3-2 Tiger win in 1976.

The following weekend, January 11 and 12, Princeton will he on the road for a pair of Ivy League games against Yale and Brown.

TIGER QUINTET SPLITS

In Toledo Tournament. A close one finally fell into the win column for the Princeton basketball team last week, but the joy lasted only 24 hours.

Facing another hard-luck team in the opener of the Glass City Classic in Toledo, Princeton managed to squeeze out a 68-66 overtime triumph against winless North Carolina-Charlotte. But, the Orange and Black fell back into a familiar pattern in the championship game against Toledo, and lost, 61-45.

The split left the Tigers with a 3-7 mark through their first 10 games. Just one more non-league contest remains — a road game against Lehigh this Saturday, before Ivy play begins the following weekend. Harvard, the Ivy school with the best record to date, and Dartmouth will play in Jadwin, Friday and Saturday, January 11 and 12. The contest against the Crimson, off to its best start in a quarter century, will give an early indication of the Tigers' chances in the league race.

Princeton stayed close to Toledo for the first half, largely on the foul shooting of center Howie Levy, and trailed by only a point, 22-21, at the intermission. Levy hit three field goals from in close and was a perfect seven of seven from the line for 13 points.

But he could manage just two more points in the second half, and when the host team developed a hot shooting touch at the start of the final 20 minutes, Princeton fell quickly out of contention. The Rockets ran off the first eight points after the intermission, and stayed hot to connect on 11 of their first 13 attempts.

They finished 25 out of 55 from the floor, after a poor

Can Ron Rogerson Do for Tigers What Jerry Berndt Has Done for Penn?

Will Ron Rogerson be able to do for Princeton what Jerry Berndt has done for Penn?

That answer lies down the road two or three seasons hence, but some preliminary observations can be made about Princeton's next head football coach. He wasn't everybody's unanimous choice. Several alumni had hoped Homer Smith would get the nod, but Rogerson is clearly the first choice of athletic director Bob Myslik, who had the final say.

In picking a younger man than Smith, Myslik has chosen to go with a coach, who could be around here a long time if he is successful. At 41, Rogerson could easily hold the job 10 to 15 years. Of course, success at Princeton might invite offers to coach at a bigger Division I-A school.

On first impression, Rogerson's most outstanding quality is his enthusiasm. In seven minutes, he displayed more than Frank Navarro did in seven years. Navarro, a pleasant, but very private person, seemed to weigh every comment he made for public consumption. Win, lose or tie, Navarro had little to say of a direct nature, and consistently talked around rather than answer the direct question.

Rogerson appears to be a more candid individual and more hard-nosed. He got high marks from one of next year's co-captains, Anthony DiTommaso, one of several players who met with Rogerson before the announcement.

"He stressed motivation and leadership," Di Tommaso commented. "He wants to get down in the trenches with us. His specialty is the offensive line, and he told us he wants to 'get down with the hogs.'

"He'll bring us closer together as a team. And the closer you are the more you'll pull together. And when you're down by two or three points, late in the game, it's time to pull together."

According to one source, Rogerson's teams at Maine had a reputation among opposing coaches for playing over their heads in many games, and rarely, if ever, playing below their abilities. Princeton's sorry record in that department the last few years does not need to be reviewed one more time.

On the face of it, Rogerson's losing record at Maine might be questioned. However, he was at a competitive disadvantage in the tough Yankee Conference, where other schools gave out 70 athletic scholarships, and Maine permitted only 45. Also his predecessor, Jack Bicknell, compiled a worse record there, and has gone on to achieve great success at Boston College.

Rogerson announced two important changes he plans to make on the football field. He plans to install the Wing-T offense here, which relies much more on good running backs, plus more running on option plays by the quarterback. The wide receiver is turned into a wingback with more responsibility for carrying the ball. Whether the Tigers have the ability and depth at running back and the time to make the switch successfully without spring practice remains to be seen.

On defense, Rogerson indicated he would like to return to the 5-2, a move many hope he will reconsider. Navarro's switch to a 4-3 last fall was long overdue, and proved to be the right move, after three seasons of porous defense.

Can Rogerson do what Jake McCandless achieved only in his first year, and Bob Casciola and Frank Navarro never accomplished? It's been 15 seasons, 10 of them losing ones, since Princeton claimed a share of the Ivy title. This man appears to have the qualifications, and certainly deserves all the support the University, its alumni and fans can give in order to get the job done. It's gone undone far too long.

first half. Princeton was only 18 out of 44. The Tigers sorely missed the scoring of guard John Smyth, who missed both games because of the flu. Joe Scott had 12 points.

The previous night, Scott managed to make up for Smyth's absence, scoring a career-high 18 points, including a game-tying jumper with one second left in regulation time to send the contest into overtime.

Princeton, which had let a 10-point first-half lead slip away, redeemed itself with a heroic effort in the final 38 seconds. North Carolina held a 61-56 lead with just over half a minute left, but the Tigers scored the final five points to tie it.

It was Levy's turn to be the hero in overtime. His lay-up, off a pass from John Thompson, with just two seconds left broke the final tie of the night, and gave Princeton a 68-66 triumph.

Jay Bubniak, Dave Orlandini and Levy each added 12 points to Scott's 18. Thompson was blanked in scoring, but had 10 invaluable assists. The Tigers' shooting from the field was much better than Saturday night, as they hit 32 of 56 attempts.

PDS GAINS SPLIT

In Hamilton Tournament.

The Princeton Day basketball team learned a good lesson from its mistakes in the space of 24 hours last week, and split its two games in the Hamilton Tournament.

The Panthers were pressured into playing a poor third quarter against Hamilton last Thursday night, and ultimately lost, 61-49, to the Hornets. However, the following evening, faced with the same problem, the Blue and White responded well, and won a squeaker, 67-66.

The Lawrence contest was close through three periods of play. Although the Cards held five and seven-point leads in the third period, PDS managed to close the gap each time.

In the fourth, PDS held a 50-49 lead when Lawrence instituted a full court press. PDS buckled under the pressure, allowing the Cards to run off eight straight points and take a 57-50 lead.

Hamilton had done the same thing in the third period the night before, but this time PDS was able to come back. The strong words of coach Frank Konstantynowicz during a time out may have made the difference.

Princeton Day regrouped and after the teams traded baskets, ran off 11 consecutive points of its own to take a 67-63 lead with 1:20 to play. Lawrence got the final three points, and had a chance at a victory with its final shot, but fell short.

PHS Boys and Girls, Hun Basketball Teams All Advance To Final Round in Tournaments, But None Is a Winner

The Princeton High School boys and girls teams and the Hun School all engaged in holiday basketball tournaments last week. All three advanced to the championship round. All three, unfortunately, lost.

Princeton High battled host Ewing High on even terms right up to the end before bowing, 52-48, Saturday evening in the 12th annual Blue Devil Christmas Classic. Hun fell apart in the second half and was routed by host Notre Dame, 78-41, in the final of the Irish Christmas Tournament; and the Princeton High School girls quintet lost, 48-30, to an old nemesis, Hopewell Valley High School in Friday's championship game in the Hopwell Valley holiday Tournament in Pennington.

Marv Trotman's Little Tigers turned in the most impressive tournament play. The Little Tigers had advanced to the title game with a glittering 83-73 victory over once-beaten (6-1) Pennsbury High, the defending tournament champion in Thursday's opening game. Against Ewing, PHS outscored the 4-1 Blue Devils from the floor, 21-18, but lost the game at the foul line. "It came down to foul shooting," agreed Trotman. Trailing 38-33 at the start of the final period, PHS had to fool in try to get back in the hard-fought contest "and we kept fooling the wrnng man," observed Trotman. We wanted to foul (Tom) Savage or one of their other big men but we kept putting Willets up there."

THIS ONE'S MINE: Princeton High's 5-11 Darryl Hemingway grabs rebound from 6-3 Alan Tarrant of the Pennsbury Falcons in action in the opening round of the Ewing Blue Devils Christmas Classic. Hemingway's 16 points helped the Little Tigers to upset Pennsbury, the defending tournament champion, 83-73. PHS lost title game Saturday night to host Ewing, 52-48. (W.L. Bill Allen Photo)

Chuck Willets is only a 5-8 guard for Ewing but he was the tallest man on the floor, as far as the Little Tigers were concerned. He tossed in a game-high 32 points, 21 of Ewing's 28 points in the second half, including all 14 of the Blue Devils' third-period scoring. The hot-handed senior, who was voted the Tournament's Most Valuable Player, was also 10 for 12 from the foul line, including both ends of a 1-and-1 with 30 seconds left to play that sealed the win for Ewing. Ewing was 16 of 21 from the free throw line, PHS 6 of 12.

Despite the loss, Trotman was pleased with his team's performance. "I thought we played well," said Trotman. "The game could have gone either way."

Off this performance, Trotman felt that his road-weary Little Tigers (PHS will play its first home game this Wednesday at 8 against Nottingham in a league contest) have served notice that they will be tough to beat in conference play. "We haven's had a patsy game yet and we're waiting for our conference games to begin. We think we can win our conference."

After Nottingham, PHS will play two more Valley Conference opponents. Hopewell Valley Friday night in Pennington and West Windsor at home Tuesday evening.

Six players accounted for all of Princeton's points against Ewing, as both teams played only six men. Marvin Trotman Jr. led PHS with 16, while Darryl Hemingway had 12 and Freddie Young 8.

After Ewing had gone up by five after three periods, two straight baskets by Trotman started a PHS string of eight unanswered points that put the Little Tigers on top, 43-40. Ewing came right back with an eight-point run of its own to regain the lead, 48-43, with 1:23 left to play.

28 Points for Young. A career-high 28 points by Young plus 16 each by Steve Davis and Hemingway powered PHS tn its win over Pennsbury.

It was a measure of revenge for PHS, who was trounced 84-65 by the same Falcons last year. The taller Pennsbury team was not able to keep up with the smaller but quicker Little Tigers.

"We just ran, ran, ran," said Trotman. "Last year they ran against us because they beat us on the boards. This year, despite our size, we rebounded well and were able to run against them."

In the other opening game, Ewing defeated Hillsborough High, 70-57. In Saturday's consolation match, Pennsbury walloped Hillsborough, 80-57.

What Happened to Hun? Hun coach Pat Kahny got his wish early: he got to play his alma mater Notre Dame when Hun shocked Steinert in the opening round nf the Irish Tournament, 54-51. Now the first-year coach has one more wish: the answer to what happened to his team against ND in the second-half of Saturday's title game.

From a one-point first period lead that fell to a five-point deficit at the half, Hun self destructed in the third period in which Notre Dame outscored the Raiders, 24-7. The second half totals were 47 points for ND, 15 for Hun. "I really don't know what happened," said Kahny. I can't explain it. We were totally flat."

Hun's only moments came in the opening period. After falling behind early, 6-0, Keith Green and Tom Jingoli ignited a Hun comeback, Green tossing in six points and Jingoli seven as Hun finished the period with a 15-14 lead. Anthony Martelloni's short jumper at the start of the second period extended Hun's margin to three but that was to be the highwater mark for Hun. Kevin Goode scored on a pair of layups to give favored ND the lead and the Irish never trailed again.

Green ended with 17 for Hun, while Jingoli had nine.

In the opening game, Hun jumped to a 34-19 lead at halftime to surprise the favored Spartans and then hung on after Steinert managed to tie the game at 41 for a 54-51 victory.

Kahny used an iron-five against Steinert and all scored. Green and Jingoli led with 14 each, Chris Mackin added 12, Martelloni 10 and Bob Saslasko, 4.

In the other opening game, Notre Dame handed Truman High its first loss after six opening wins with a 61-59 victory. In the consolation game, Truman topped Steinert, 59-54.

Notre Dame's Brian O'Reilly who had 19 points against Hun and 14 against Truman, was named the tourney's MVP.

One More Time. Hopewell Valley Defeats Princeton is a headline that PHS coach Joyce Jones saw a lot of in 1984; one she hopes she won't see again in the new year.

Hopewell Valley did it this time on the basketball court as the Bulldogs were able to contain Princeton's two top scorers for a 48-30 victory. Hopewell's defense never allowed PHS to score more than nine points in any one period.

"They applied a lot of pressure on us and we didn't adjust to it," said Jones. Hopewell held Tomi Morton and Tracy Hemingway, Princeton's top guns, to 21 points as the Little Tigers got only nine more from seven other players.

PHS, which outshot and outrebounded the 3-2 Bulldogs, jumped to an early 7-4 lead. With the score tied at 10, Hopewell ran off nine straight points to take control of the contest.

Terry Smith was a constant thorn in the Little Tigers' hide. Voted the tourney's MVP, Smith had a game-high 18 points, 13 steals and seven assists against PHS.

The loss left PHS all even at 2-2 but Jones was not unhappy. "It's been a long time since we've been 2-2," she noted.

In the opening game against New Hope with the score tied at 34 with 10 seconds left to play, Hemingway hit Morton, who was open under the net with a pass. Morton converted for the game-winning basket and a 36-34 win.

Unlike Hopewell who knew which players it had to contain, New Hope did not put the pressure on Morton and Hemingway. The two combined for all but two of Princeton's points, Hemingway getting 18, Morton 16. Cassie Vogt had Princeton's other two.

Panthers Fold in Third. Princeton Day managed to hang in against Hamilton for two periods the previous night, but the Panthers came unglued in the third They managed to tie the score in the opening minutes, hut the home team then rap off 10 straight points.

The key to the Hornets' success was a swarming defense that pressured the Blue and White into numerous turnovers and missed shots. And the taller Hamilton players gohhled up every rebound

PDS started strongly, running up an 8-2 lead in the early going, but the winners recovered and led 15-12 at the end of the first quarter. The Panthers cut the margin to two, 26-24, at the half, and managed the tie early in the third, before the Hornets took control.

In the fourth, PDS regained its composure, and was outscored by just a point, 16-15, hut the damage had already been done. Jnn McConaughy and Lynch Hunt had 12 points apiece for PDS.

YWCA Newcomers Club Provides Support For Newer Residents in Princeton Area

What do Princeton residents Mary-Anne Williams, Margreta Hedberg, and Joanne Cuoco have in common?

They, along with over 220 other women who have recently moved into the area, have turned to the Newcomers Club of the YWCA for that little bit of extra help in making a transition to a new community.

The club meets the second Thursday of each month. A nursery is always available for children between the ages of one to five, making it possible for a woman with very young children to participate.

The club also offers a wide range of interest groups that can help newcomers meet people who share their interests. These include Art History, Daytime Bridge, Evening Gourmet, French Conversation, Luncheon Out, and Princeton History.

Mary-Anne Williams moved to Princeton 15 months ago. Her husband, Bill, is with IBM and two of their four children are still at home.

She had lived in Salt Lake City for the past eight years, and prior to that in Scarsdale. With two children in college in the East, she felt that this was an excellent time to come back.

"Princeton was the ideal place," she said," "but it is a wrenching. You miss all that you're used to, and we knew no one in the area."

The family has come to enjoy the town, and especially such things as the University, sporting events, and theatre at McCarter. "But," said Mrs. Williams, "I still miss the outdoor life and skiing offered in the west."

She, like all three women we spoke with, said the Newcomers Club has been a valuable aid in meeting new people and learning about the community.

PRINCETON NEWCOMER: Margreta Hedberg in a traditional Swedish costume at a special meeting of the Newcomers Club at the YWCA.

Margreta Hedberg arrived from Sweden in August, 1983, with her husband, Stefan, and two sons. It was her husband's work that brought them across the Atlantic. He is an engineer working on a new heating project in Trenton.

She had lived in Gottenburg most of her life, and, not surprisingly, knew little about the Princeton area. "But it was nice and had a good school system. We were here a week and decided to settle."

She said that even though Gottenburg is a university town, it is very different from Princeton. "You know there's a university but you don't really notice it. The university means a lot more over here"

Her sons, one in John Witherspoon and the other a freshman in high school, didn't know about football when they arrived "But now they go to the games and know all about the University."

Mrs. Hedberg misses the feeling of being close to nature she had in Sweden, and has found it strange that people are not allowed to walk anywhere they like. In Gottenburg, she said, there is no such thing as a "No Trespassing" sign on private acreage.

Her sons enjoy school in Princeton. They find it harder and more challenging, and they have more homework than they had at home. She added that this was their first experience with grades.

Joanne Cuoco, here a little more than a year, had lived in Scarsdale all her life. Her husband, Daniel, is with Squibb, and they have three children, one a sophomore at The Hun School.

She finds Princeton basically similar to Scarsdale, "but it's more varied here, with students, academics, and a lot of people working in town. I find it positive."

All three women agreed that they didn't like the traffic in town. "Everything is far apart," said Mrs. Cuoco. "Getting from the cleaner to the fruit store could take an hour, depending on traffic. You have to use care and be aware of traffic hours."

Another thing the women agreed upon was that there is a great deal to do in Princeton, including theatre, ballet, and lectures. "It's overwhelming," said Mrs. Williams. "You have to pick and choose."

One of the things to do is play golf, and Mrs. Cuoco mentioned that she had had problems finding people to play with. "I play golf," said Mrs. Hedberg, and as the two women left the Newcomers Club meeting, they were setting up a date to play.

Just another example of how the Club helps people find friends who share their interests.

LET'S TALK ABOUT

TREE CARE TERMINOLOGY– with Sam DeTuro
Woodwinds Associates

PRUNING – thins out branches to allow penetration of more light and air lessens dampness in the house and danger from live limbs over roofs, wires and roadways helps tree adapt itself to surrounding conditions and shapes it artistically

FEEDING – healthy trees like healthy humans are highly disease resistant. Well fed trees and shrubs are better able to withstand a vigorous onslaught of insect attack. Today's lawns are no substitute for natural food found in the rich humus of the forest. Starving soil requires additives. Deep root feeding is the answer to malnutrition.

SPRAYING – insects are seldom forgettable. Inchworms, caterpillar, aphids, mites, all leave an unsightly impression of their handiwork. Control of insect damage is not a hit or miss proposition. A schedule for your tree and shrub care spraying would be of great help in keeping your garden lovely to look at.

DORMANT SPRAYING – although trees do sleep in winter, so do the parasites. Dormant spraying just before budding kills the insects before they start foraging for new spring growth. This is a great preventative control measure.

BRACING AND CABLING – faulty structural growth, such as weak crotched and overburdened limbs leads to splitting, disfigurement or total loss of tree under certain storm conditions. Bracing and cabling help prevent such damage.

CAVITY TREATMENT – cavities are unsightly, invite moisture, fungus, insects and decay. While some trees should not be treated, this is really a matter for a professional. Cavity filler is so similar to wood itself in porosity, flexibility and weathering that it practically integrates itself with the heartwood to form a natural base over which new cabium and bark can grow.

LIGHTNING PROTECTION – your specimen trees can be destroyed in just a flash! The best preventative measure to protect your trees is with lightning protection.

As always, we at WOODWINDS are most interested in protecting your valued trees and shrubs. Do give us a call at 924-3500 for all your tree care needs.

OBITUARIES

Joanna V. Dorman of Province Line Road, died December 24.

Wife of William R. L. Dorman, she is also survived by three daughters, Louise Kim, Venetia and Dominique; her mother, Diana Edmunds of England; two brothers, Anthony Fry and Henry Edmunds, and a sister, Sarah Wynne-Evans, all of England.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to an Ethiopian Relief agency or the Cancer Fund.

Dominick Zullo, 52, died suddenly December 23 at his home.

Born in Carpinone, Italy, Mr. Zullo had lived in Princeton for more than 30 years. He and his brother John operated Reilly's Market on Witherspoon Street for 24 years, and for the past five years he had been employed at Princeton University.

A well-known guitarist and entertainer, Mr. Zullo had performed on television and at many area restaurants. His last professional performance was for Princess Grace of Monaco during her last visit to New Jersey.

He is survived by his wife, Waldina; a daughter, Carmen, and a son, Alfie, both at home; his mother, Jessie Zullo, and his brother, John Zullo, both of Princeton.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Paul's Church with burial in Princeton Cemetery. Arrangements were under the direction of the Kimble Funeral Home.

Arthur M. Wright, 64, of Hopewell, died December 22 in Hunterdon Medical Center, Flemington. He was a partner of the J.B. Hill and Sons Lumber Co. of Hopewell.

Mr. Wright was born in Steelton, Pa., and had lived in Hopewell for the past 40 years. He was a 1942 graduate of Franklin and Marshall College and served as lieutenant in the U.S. Navy in World War II. He received a master's degree from Rutgers University.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Hopewell and of American Legion Post 339. Mr. Wright was a former member of the Hopewell Borough Council and past president of the Hopewell Borough Board of Education. He was also past president of the Hopewell Borough Fire Department.

Surviving are his wife, Janet Hill Wright; a daughter, Diana Masler of Hinckley, Ohio; a son, Arthur H. Wright of Hopewell, and a grandson, Arthur H. Wright Jr.

A private service was held at a Hopewell memorial home, the Rev. Burton Party, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church of Hopewell, officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Diabetes Foundation.

Joseph P. Fleming, 84, of George Street, Lawrenceville, died December 21 at the Helene Fuld Medical Center.

Born in Trenton, he had lived in Lawrenceville most of his life and had been self-employed by the Joseph P. Fleming Real Estate and Insurance Co. of Lawrenceville for the last 40 years. A member of the New Jersey Assembly from 1942-44, he was secretary of the Lawrenceville Water Co. for the past 10 years.

He was a member of the Lawrenceville Historical Society and a former trustee of the Lawrenceville Presbyterian Church and the Lawrenceville Cemetery.

Surviving are a son, Peter B. Fleming of St. Paul, Minn., a daughter, Patricia J. Fleming of Ewing Township, two sisters, Marie C. Fleming of Lawrenceville, and Agnes Henry of Sarasota, Fla., and four grandchildren.

The service was held at the Lawrenceville Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. H. Dana Fearon III, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Lawrenceville Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Lawrenceville Presbyterian Church or the American Cancer Society, 652 Whitehead Road, Trenton, 08648.

Thomas G. Watlington, 74, of Princeton Junction, died December 28 at Princeton Medical Center.

Born in Chatham, Va., Mr. Watlington had lived in Princeton Junction for the past 25 years. He was employed for 30 years as a supervisor with Borden Castanea in Trenton and later worked for RCA. He was employed by United Jersey Bank in Princeton at the time of his death.

Mr. Watlington had been active for many years in the West Windsor Little League. He was a member of Princeton Lodge 38 F&AM, Fraternal Order of Eagles Aerie 2732 and the First Presbyterian Church of Dutch Neck.

Surviving are his wife, Hazel K. Watlington; three daughters, Mrs. Almeyda Prickett of New Hampton, N.Y.; Mrs. Ruth Panek of Titusville and Mrs. Juanita McLaughlin of Pittsburgh, Pa.; two sons, Thomas G. Watlington II of Robbinsville and Richard T. Watlington of Princeton Junction; two brothers, Gyp Watlington of Monmouth Junction and Howard Watlington of Hurt, Va.; and 11 grandchildren.

The service was held at the Kimble Funeral Home, the Rev. Floyd W. Churn, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Dutch Neck, officiating. Burial was in Dutch Neck Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to either the First Presbyterian Church of Dutch Neck, 154 South Mill Road, Princeton Junction, or to Twin W. First Aid and Rescue Squad, Everett Drive, Princeton Junction, N.J. 08550.

Roy H. Okeson, 85, of Rossmoor, formerly of West Windsor, died December 30 at Princeton after a brief illness.

Born in Kingston, Mr. Okeson had been a resident of Rossmoor since 1982. He was formerly of Cranbury Road, West Windsor Township. He retired from Carrier Corp. of New York City as a purchasing agent after many years of service.

Husband of the late Kathryn S. Okeson, he is survived by two daughters, Sarah Jane Kaye of Louisa, Va., and Elaine K. Fitzgerald of Winthrop, Maine, and four grandchildren.

A memorial service was held at a Cranbury memorial home, the Rev. Floyd Churn, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Dutch Neck, officiating. Burial was private. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that contributions be sent to the Twin W. Rescue Squad, Princeton Junction, N.J. 08550, or the Jamesburg First Aid Squad, Jamesburg, N.J. 08531.

Dr. John J. Tambascia, 52, of Belle Mead, died December 30 at Graduate Hospital, Philadelphia. He was an attending member of the medical and dental staff in the Department of Medicine at Princeton Medical Center for 20 years.

Born in Newark, Dr. Tambascia had lived in Belle Mead for the last 21 years and had been a practicing physician in Kendall Park. He earned his A.B. degree at Lafayette College in Easton, Pa., and was a graduate of Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia and the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, where he received his M.D. degree.

He was a member of the American College of Angiology and the American College of Chest Physicians. He was also a member of the American Medical Association. Dr. Tambascia was an honorary life member of the South Brunswick P.B.A. Local 166.

Surviving are his wife, Anne R. Tambascia; a son, John J. Tambascia Jr., and daughter, Anne E. Tambascia, both at home, and a sister, Annette Venturo of Roselle Park.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Cecilia's Church, Monmouth Junction. Burial was in Holy Cross Burial Park, South Brunswick.

REALTOR MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE MLS

ROLLING HILL ROAD

If you love soaring glass walls bringing in the Southern sun, this dramatic, unique house is for you! In the prestigious Bedens Brook area, on one plus wooded acre, the simple lines of this attractive stucco and beam house give no hint of the spectacular light-filled, 18 foot high living area with its tall, two-way brick fireplace that greets you as you enter the slate foyer. Three bedrooms, 3 baths and spacious loft. $350,000

HEATHER LANE

This delightful road in northwest Township cannot promise the soft hues of the heather of Scotland, but it can offer pleasant living on a charming lane. One plus wooded acre, this attractive Colonial offers: foyer, light, bright living room with fireplace, windowed wall and sliding doors to terrace, formal dining room, efficient kitchen, mud room, study/bedroom and full bath on first floor. Four bedrooms and two baths on second. Full basement. Two car garage. NEW PRICE $285,000

BAYARD COURT

A luxury condominium - pleasant living for those who want to simplify their lives. On a western Princeton street, this end unit of a small group overlooks a wooded area, is energy-efficient and includes many custom details including deluxe cabinets with brass fittings and built-in bookcases. Mexican quarry tiled entry, lavatory, kitchen/family room, greenhouse, spacious living room, three bedrooms, two baths. $193,500

CONSTITUTION HILL

One of the most luxurious in an area where luxury is the rule. This handsome residence has the advantages of a single house with the additional advantages of gracious living under the condominium plan of Constitution Hill. Foyer, spectacular living room, superb kitchen with dining area, 2 bedrooms, 3 baths and loft/study $435,000

TOWHEE FARM, RIVER ROAD

Princeton Area - Country estate on 22 acres with large traditional Colonial. Many amenities include numerous fireplaces, beautiful woodwork, pool, tennis court, guest house, horse barn, orchard and fenced pastures. $695,000

DODDS LANE

Two fireplaces is but one of the custom details that make this wonderful family house of special interest. Located in Princeton Township, a short walk from the lake and the bus line, it offers living room with fireplace, formal dining room, sunny eat-in kitchen, family room with fireplace, laundry and lavatory on first floor. Five bedrooms and two baths on second. Finished basement. $240,000

Mayor Sigmund

ship between the growth in the Princeton area and the narrow property tax base utilized in New Jersey for the provision of services. The latter will focus on the effects of this growth on Princeton Borough's economic life.

TOWN TOPICS received an advance copy of the mayor's speech. Following are most of its major points.

"That great American native philosopher Mae West notwithstanding, too much of a good thing is not always wonderful.

"This lesson is being driven home on almost a daily basis regarding the mega-growth in the Route 1 seven-mile super stretch outside Princeton.

"Newspaper reports of increases in accidents and traffic congestion simply confirm ordinary human experience and observation.

"One area daily newspaper headlined that farmland in Mercer, especially in the Princeton area, is the most expensive in the state because more and more of it is being snatched up for development purposes.

"Another area daily newspaper, in a column entitled "This Boom Is a Bust," counseled Princeton to request an unlisted zip code!

That Coveted Address. "For there should be little doubt that the current glass and steel craze rampant in the region is caused not only by proximity to Princeton, but by deliberately induced confusion about the location of these ziggurats of the zip code as well. Who, indeed, has heard tell of the Plainsboro Forrestal Center or the West Windsor Hyatt or the South Brunswick Corporate Research Park?

"Now, if the quantity of the present and projected growth along Route 1 were of a reasonable magnitude, we in Princeton would be able to take this appropriation of our good name with several grains of neighborly salt. Indeed, a moderate amount of well planned development in neighboring towns is a welcome stimulant for our commercial and cultural enterprises; for that we would cheerfully lend them our name and shrug off the hoodwinking of some of the people all of the time that the shameless creation of Princeton Mews without end produces.

"But consider carefully what it is that we're talking about. We've all heard the comparisons to downtown Minneapolis and Dallas — that the office space between Ridge Road and Quaker Bridge Road alone will be equal to downtown Minneapolis by 1990 and to downtown Dallas in just 15 years. What we don't often hear is the rest of the story — that amount of development is projected from what is known or believed to be already "in the works," and the full "build-out" of the present zoning codes of the towns along that strip would allow up to four times that amount of development.

"And it is to amending those zoning codes that we must all in this region begin to look if we are to survive as the kind of environment that attracts people to the "Princeton area" in the first place. Indeed, we all like the real Plainsboro and the real West Windsor and the real South Brunswick, instead of the pseudo-Princeton that they're building.

Allegiance to Princeton. "But it is to the real Princeton that the Mayor and Council owe our first allegiance and most particularly, of course, to the Borough. And because of this, we must do what we can to protect both the pleasant physical ambiance and the mixed income character of Princeton Borough itself from the almost maniacal growth pattern that is occurring around us in the name and zip code of Princeton.

"Press attention has concentrated on possible court action that may be initiated by the Borough in this regard, but here are some other suggestions that I have made to accomplish this, some of them long standing and some of newer mintage.

"1. The New Jersey Department of Transportation should abandon plans to widen Route 1 and to build multiple separated interchanges at various intersections, including Alexander and Harrison Streets. It should, instead, build a new Route 1 limited-access expressway adjacent to the main line of the railroad in the right of way between Routes 295 and 130 (just south of New Brunswick) buffered by a "no development" zone, and should build only the overpass at Quaker Bridge Road on present Route 1, the need for which preexisted the present development trends.

"Otherwise, the DOT is locked forever in the position of that ancient anti-hero, Sisyphus, whose fate it was endlessly to roll the rock to the top of the hill, only to have it roll back down to the bottom so that he had to start all over again. Likewise, the DOT, by adding lanes to Route 1, will attract even more growth, necessitating even more lanes, etc., etc. etc.

"Route 1 in our area is attempting to be simultaneously a local access road and an expressway. We need both kinds of highways in our area, but it is both dangerous and unworkable for these uses to coexist in the same roadbed. The present expansionist plans of the DOT for Route 1 are, therefore, doomed to failure, even as they act as an added inducement for ever more growth on Route 1.

Seek Legislative Action. "2. The Mayor and Council, the Township Committee, and the Princeton Regional Planning Board must seek active legislation in the New Jersey State Legislature to achieve concrete regional control mechanisms over growth that has regional impact. Last year on this occasion I suggested that county planning boards be given co-equal approval powers with municipal boards over any development of 100,000 square feet or more.

"I believe that the time to seek active introduction of such legislation may now be more propitious and will seek cooperation in 1985 from neighboring communities for legislative enactment of this measure.

"3. The Borough Tax Policy Committee and Economic Development Committees will be re-constituted by resolution as formal committees of Mayor and Council.

"The Tax Policy Committee, which will be chaired by Councilman Marvin Reed, with his hardworking co-chairs of 1984 Alice Small and Celeste King as vice chairs, will concentrate on the relation between the untrammeled growth in our area and the narrow property tax base utilized in New Jersey for the provision of services. It will report to Mayor and Council by November 15 in plenty of time to make recommendations to the new state commission on taxation.

"The Economic Development Committee, which will be co-chaired by Councilmen Huntoon, Urken and Woodbridge, will concentrate on the effects of the growth on Princeton Borough's economic life. It will address specifically the challenges of business retention and a healthy business mix in the face of escalating rents, as well as continuing to address that granddaddy of all Princeton Borough challenges, the venerable parking problem."

Borough Assignments Announced To Councils, Boards, Committees

Borough Mayor Barbara Sigmund announced committee assignments and the names of Council representatives to Princeton boards and commissions during the reorganization meeting held New Year's Day at Borough Hall. Marvin Reed and Mildred Trotman were sworn in as new Council members. (Jane Terpstra, who also won election in November, had been sworn in previously).

John Huntoon will head the Finance Committee; its members are Marvin Reed and Richard Woodbridge. The Public Safety Committee will be headed by Police Commissioner Jane Terpstra. Fire Commissioner Irv Urken and Deputy Fire Commissioner Richard Woodbridge will also serve on this committee.

Irv Urken will head the Public Works Committee, whose other members will be Richard Woodbridge and Mildred Trotman. The Personnel Practices Committee will be chaired by Jane Terpstra and consist also of Marvin Reed and Irv Urken. School liaison will be Mildred Trotman.

Borough Council representatives to boards and commissions are as follows: Planning Board, Mildred Trotman; Board of Health, Mildred Trotman; Housing Authority, Jane Terpstra; Recombinant DNA, Richard Woodbridge; Rent Registration Board, John Huntoon; Shade Tree Commission, Irv Urken; Joint Commission on Aging, John Huntoon; Joint Commission on Civil Rights; Mildred Trotman; Intergovernmental Drug Committee, Jane Terpstra; Joint Recreation Board, Richard Woodbridge; and Sewer Operating Committee, Marvin Reed.
